

Key Vocabulary
life cycle	A life cycle is the stages living things go through as they grow and get older.
germination	Germination is the first stage of a seed's life cycle, when it starts to grow.
sprout	A sprout is a new growth from a plant, such as a new shoot .
shoot	A shoot is the part of a plant that grows above the ground.
seedling	A seedling is a young plant grown from a seed .
reproduction	Reproduction is when plants make new plants.

Key Knowledge

Plants need the right amount of light and water, as well as a suitable temperature, to grow and stay healthy.

light

water

temperature

healthy

not healthy

germination

sprout

seedling

