

Prior knowledge: What they should know

-

Key knowledge: What children must know

- To know when the Stone Age was.
- To know what BC and AD are and their difference
- To know the different periods of the stone age and their order (Palaeolithic, Mesolithic and Neolithic).
- To know where the Stonehenge is and what relevance it has to the Stone Age.
- To know what Skara Brae is and why it was significant to the Stone Age.
- To know what Cave Paintings were used for- to decoration or to document hunting experiences (art).
- To know the tools that people used and why.
- To know how Stone Age people got their food- farming and hunting
- To know when the Bronze Age begun and why it was called the Bronze Age
- To know when the Iron Age begun and why it was called the Iron Age.
- To know what the people during the Iron Age in Britain were known as and when did their time period end or change.

Key Vocabulary

- Stone Age
- BC/E
- AD/CE
- Palaeolithic
- Mesolithic
- Neolithic
- Stonehenge
- Skara Brae
- Cave paintings
- Tools
- Stones and bones
- Hunting
- Farming
- Bronze Age
- Iron Age

Links to other subject areas:

- Geography