

Knowledge Organiser - Littlehampton Coast (London to Littlehampton)

When comparing places, we can look at the physical features (from nature) and human features (made by people). We will be exploring the geography of Littlehampton and London.

| Significant Places   |  |   |  |
|--|--|---|--|
|   |   |   |   |
| England  | London   | Shepherd's Bush   | city   |
|  |  |  |  |
| Littlehampton  | beach  | buildings   | town   |
| Littlehampton is a town in the South of England.                                   | In Littlehampton East Beach there is lots of sand.                                 | There are less buildings in Littlehampton than London.                              | A town is smaller than a city.   |

| Key vocabulary  |  |   |   |
|---|--|---|---|
|  |  |  |  |
| Coast - where the land meets the sea. Sometimes there is a beach.            | Harbour - Where the boats are kept on the water.                              | Physical features - things that have been there a long time (from nature)      | Human features - things that have been designed and made by people.            |